BRADEN™

It's your choice. Braden can be configured as a sectional or as a sofa.

Braden is a sectional sofa series that is equally well suited to reception areas or open atrium settings. Braden can also be configured as a conventional sofa and armchair (opposite) to fit any interior application or budget.

Individual models are available to facilitate inside or outside corners in sectional applications. Models with and without arms support both formal and more relaxed environments and a separate model with a laminate top and upholstered sides can be configured as a corner, end or coffee table. An ottoman is also included in the series.

A wide range of fabrics, vinyls and leathers are available to complement any interior.

BRADEN™

Three seat sofa and armchair with coffee table.

Sofa seating with arms between seats offer individual comfort.

Armless sofa creates a relaxed and more informal setting.
